

Aged Men Found Dead Of Exposure

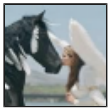

LAS VEGAS (P)—Two men sought after they wandered away from the Meadows Home for the Aged were found dead of exposure yesterday.

John Barncastle, 94, Albuquerque was found in an abandoned shack in the foothills about a mile from the home. He had disappeared from the home Saturday night.

Ramon Ramirez, 55, Las Vegas, was found dead in a field near Camp Luna about the same distance from the home. Attendants at the home said Ramirez, a cancer patient, had been despondent lately.

Both men apparently died of exposure.

Clipped By:

EHENDRIX11

Tue, Apr 18, 2017