

Bradleys Gather For 7th Reunion

Descendants of David and Mary (Shope) Bradley held their seventh annual reunion Aug. 1, at Stone Creek Lions Park, Huntingdon. There were 64 persons present. Preceding the noon meal, divine blessing was asked by the Rev. Raymond Brosius, Jr.

A business meeting was held with president, David Steele, in charge. The officers who served last year will serve another year, namely: David Steele, president; Merla Dysard, vice president; Darlene Brosius, secretary, and Edna Brosius, treasurer. Mrs. Verna Cunningham and her family will be in charge of the games next year.

There was one death recorded in the past year, that of Rachel (Hall) Peters.

"Precious Memories of Growing Up on the Farm With Our Family," written by Mrs. Cora (Bradley) Welch of Sarasota, Fla., was read. Kirby Bradley of Belleville made comments on the "good ole days."

Games were played and door prizes were given under the direction of Ellen Minter and Josephine Mattson. Many of the prizes had been made by Mrs. Vesta Low, Caroline Morris, Ellen Minter and Josephine Mattson and included knitted slippers, macrame towel holders, macrame plant holders and purses and spice ropes.

Banner ribbons imprinted "Bradley Reunion 1981" were placed on the tables, compliments of Mrs. Vesta Low. Lapel ribbons imprinted with "Bradley Reunion 1981" were presented to each person present, compliments of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Welch.

Descendants recognized were: Kirby Bradley, eldest man; Vesta (Bradley) Low, eldest woman; Robert and Shirley Steele, most family members present; Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Welch, traveling the farthest, and Byron Hoover, youngest child present.

Time was spent visiting, singing and reminiscing. A highlight of the singing occurred when the group joined hands and sang God Be With You Till We Meet Again. A memorable time was had by all.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris of Fort Mill, S. C.; Mrs. Mildred Rhodes, Maple Heights, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore,

Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Minter, Shane, Travis and Aaron of Morgantown, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mattson of Woodstown, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. David Steele of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Thelma Cunningham, Mrs. Patricia Leonard and Kenny of Altoona; the Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Brosius, Jr. and children, Sharon, Kathy and Raymond, of Marienville.

Also: Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Welch of Sarasota, Fla.; Mrs. Verna Cunningham of Piney View, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Dysard of Lewisberry; Mrs. Vesta Low of Ruskin, Fla.; Kirby Bradley of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hoover, Lori and Byron of Elizabethtown; Tracy Woodworth of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steele, Mrs. Patricia Steele and Tammy, Trudy and Chad Cook, Mark Harris, Stephen Steele, Stephen Jr. and Jason and Mrs. Mildred Mosel of Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Florence Moore of Brunswick, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bradley of Hatrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Steele and Sandy, Carl Abers of Dewittville, N. Y.; Mrs. Emma Hamma, Three Springs; Dr. Erwin Bradley of Shippensburg; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shope, Mrs. Elma Dysard, Mrs. Merla Dysard and Ruth, Sue Dysard and April Ronk, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brosius and Darlene Brosius of Huntingdon.

The boss grumps that his secretary can take letters perfectly — it's getting whole words down in shorthand that stumps her.

Fairy tale for grown-ups: Once-upon-a-time a man found all the pins in a shirt before he put it on.

Clipped By:

GaryErrolHamilton41

Sat, Aug 19, 2017