

EDGAR ADAMS DIES IN HOME

Prominent Farmer Near Maroa, Kenney Buried
Friday

MAROA, June 7.—Edgar Adams died Wednesday night about 11 o'clock at the family home six and one-half miles west of Maroa, following an illness of seven weeks. On Monday he became worse and on Tuesday the attending physician found him suffering from pneumonia which caused his death.

Mr. Adams was the son of the late Joel Adams and was born July 19, 1871, at Lizton, Ind. The family came to Macon county in 1888 and located on a farm in Austin township, and he has resided in the same community since that time. He was married in 1893 to Miss Harriett Price. To them were born 11 children, nine of whom are living as follows:

Funeral Friday

Mrs. Ruth Bunner and Mrs. Esther Osborn, Maroa; Mrs. Naomi Cochran, Clinton; Linn, residing on a farm in Texas township, Dewitt county; Claude of Decatur and Herbert, June, Charles and Lester at home. There is one sister, Mrs. Eva Shaw, wife of William O. Shaw, of Maroa and St. Petersburg, Fla., and Dick Adams, rural mail carrier on Route 3, Maroa. He was a member of the United Brethren church of Harmony and the Maroa lodge of Odd Fellows.

Funeral services were conducted from the family home at 2:30 Friday afternoon in charge of the pastor the Harmony church. Burial will be in the Maroa cemetery.

For a number of years and until his illness Mr. Adams had been overseer of the state highways in Maroa and Austin townships.

Clipped By:

dave_smith8633

Mon, Mar 27, 2017